JUST A Little Talk ON Boy's Clothing

TO MOTHERS who have boys it will be interesting. Where is the mother who is not proud of her well dressed boy? To clothe him right is just as essential as his success at school.

A well dressed boy commands respect as well as being made happy.

LION BRAND is the kind you should buy for your boy, it is so different from other makes; just like the fashionable styles in men's suits; made with wide shoulder, hand made collar, shoulder pad, double elbow in the sleeve, French facing sewn with strong thread. The knickers have double seats, double knees, and seams are stitched twice, just what they should be to stand the boys now-a-days. We are sole agents for this make, and our new stock comprises all the new and nobby styles at prices you won't think too high for such a good make. Come on in, and let us show you the Lion Brand.

In the Rose Garden.

By VIRGINIA BLAIR.

Copyrighted, 1905, by Associated Literary Press

It was on the third night of the new moon that Beverly Alden, musing on his sermon in the darkness of his study, looked from the window something white moving in his garden.

As the Rev. Beverly's garden was a vegetable garden, he thought fearfully of something stealthily tramping on his succulent salads, and he rose hastily. Standing just behind the window shutter, he decided, however, that a horse would be shorter, a dog taller, and he did not believe in ghosts.

He went into the hall, took his hat from the rack and stepped softly over the threshold.

As his footsteps sounded, on the gravel of the path the white object moved from the middle of the garden and fled. He heard the click of the gate and then silence.

"Hum!" mused the Rev. Beverly and bent over the letter on the table. "A thief," he said as he straightened up. The next morning a fuller investigation showed that there had been depredations of onions and radishes. But the minister said nothing to his housekeeper. Common thieves did not come garbed in white, nor were they of slender outline and graceful.

The Rev. Beverly had no unusual powers of penetration, but it had not taken him many moments to decide that the spider of his garden was a woman.

"But why," he debated the next night as he finished his sermon—"why should a woman steal a lady, I am sure, by the grace of her carriage—why should she steal my little onions and my lettuce?"

But all the wisdom of the Scriptures did not answer his question. And after his sermon was finished he again turned out his light and sat in the darkness of his study.

And again, as he mused, he saw a patch of white at the end of the garden. Breathless he watched and closer and closer came the ghostly figure until it stood just beneath his window.

"Then a voice said, 'I have come to pay you for the lettuce!'"

"Oh!" His usual readiness of speech had forsaken the clergyman. "Oh, I see your garden."

"No, you haven't got it," the voice said again. "I picked some lettuce and things last night, and here is the money. It wasn't a very conventional way to go to market, but we wanted a salad, and—"

The Rev. Beverly, peering over the sill, caught the sparkle in her eyes as she made her half apology. "You needed your salad late," he said dryly.

"Ah!" her little laugh rippled out—"think of my predicament! Some people came from the city hungry, and there was nothing in the house but eggs. You see, I am such a new housekeeper—we came only yesterday—and Susanne, my maid, forgot to tell me when things are out, and the shops are so far away—so while she made an omelet I flew into your garden—and now back and no one was the wiser."

"I saw you," the Rev. Beverly informed her, "and I thought you were a thief."

"Oh!" There was a little gap. "It did look like it didn't? But, you see, I have brought the money." And the silver glittered on the sill as she spread it out before him.

"No," the Rev. Beverly protested; "you are perfectly welcome to anything you care to take."

"Oh, but you must!"—there was a note of alarm in her voice—"because I should feel as if I had stolen if I am not allowed to pay."

He was smiling down at her. "You can pay me by giving me a rose from your garden," he said.

"Why don't you have roses of your own?" she demanded.

He sighed. "I hardly dare allow myself the luxury. It is cheaper to raise one's vegetables than to buy them, and a clergyman in a small town has to think of expenses."

"I suppose," doubtfully, "that your salary is not large?"

"No, but there are donations." His eyes twinkled.

"Such as roses?" She was laughing up at him. The moonlight touched her hair with gold. The pulse of the Rev. Beverly began to beat.

"May I come over some time and walk with you in your rose garden?" he asked.

"Come now," was the quick response. "He went, and it was the beginning of friendship."

"He is lovely," Constance confided to her aunt, who had come up to her niece's colonial mansion for the purposes of chaperoning. "And he's here in this little town because he feels that he is needed more than in a city charge where he could get much more money."

"Constance," her aunt warned, "don't get romantic over a country parson. 'He has the dearest little cottage.' Constance mused, 'with a vegetable garden. He sends over tomatoes and parsley, and I put roses in his button-hole. It's very interesting,' she sighed. 'It may be tragic for him—'

"If you make him love you—what then?"

"Well!" Constance's tone was defiant. "You can't marry any one but Warren Oimstead."

"Constance's eyes flashed. 'I can too! If I don't marry Warren, I merely lose my inheritance. I don't deny that I told him how I felt just now. But did it ever occur to you that I might prefer a man to a fortune?'"

"You would miss the fortune," was the quick answer. "You were not made for love in a cottage, Constance."

But Constance was down the path. She bent over a pink rose bush and picked a bud just as the Rev. Beverly Alden came in.

"Hoses red and violets blue," she quoted. "Can you tell me the rest of it?"

"If you love me as I love you," He hesitated. "You mustn't make me say such things." "Why not?"

"Because I have nothing to offer you but a cottage and a vegetable garden."

"And if I don't marry one Warren Oimstead," she informed him, "I lose my fortune. And I won't marry him, so I am really homeless—and please, I'd like to come and live in your cottage."

Aunt Anne's chagrin over the engagement found an outlet in a letter to Warren Oimstead. "Come up and see the spider of her country parson," was the theme.

But when Warren's answer came it was a revelation.

"Read that," said Aunt Anne tragically.

It was a brief epistle, but it was very extraordinary, no doubt, for Constance danced with joy and waved the letter, crying "Hurrah!"

"Of all things," Aunt Anne ejaculated again.

Constance caught her breath quickly. "You mustn't tell Beverly," she said.

"Why not?"

"He won't marry," Constance said sadly.

"But they were married quietly and went to live in the cottage, and Aunt Anne was home, and the big colonial house was closed, and the winter came, and the roses were wrapped in winding sheets of straw."

"You will miss the rose garden next summer," said the parson as he and his wife walked up the snowy path. "I wonder who will live here then?"

"The new tenants," said Constance, who, wrapped in a big red cloak, was leaning on her husband's arm. "are lively. There will be a young clergyman, a very handsome young clergyman, and a very, very young little wife, Beverly!"

"Constance!" He bent down over her.

"The house is mine. Warren went to say that he loved some one else. He married first and forfeited his right, and I didn't want to tell you because you hated to have me rich. But don't you think it will be nice—for Beverly junior now—to play in the rose garden, doesn't?"

Why Musicians "Tune Up" in Public.

Some people have been puzzled to understand why musicians tune up their instruments in public and not before they enter the orchestra. If they attended to them before entering the theater or concert room they might find the temperature different in the place of performance, and the instruments would not be in tune.

There are 752 kinds of flowers found in the Arctic regions.

Marengo.

At the battle of Marengo the French army was virtually defeated, and while Bonaparte and his staff were considering their next move Dumas suggested that there was yet time to retrieve the disaster. Napoleon rallied his men, renewed the battle and won a great victory over the Austrians, thus turning the fortunes of Dumas into his own life on that field.

Picture Pad.

A stationery novelty which is calculated to make the modern youngster enjoy his writing exercise is a new unique writing pad. The novelty lies in the cover, which is decorated with six different decalcomania pictures. These are intended to be cut out when the tablet is exhausted and transferred to cards or letters by the process which every child is familiar with.

Source of Misery

PROTRUDING PILES

Read the evidence that this distressing ailment is cured by DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Some people find it hard to believe that anything short of a surgical operation will cure protruding piles. The doctors have brought about this belief. There is any amount of proof that Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive cure for this as well as all other forms of piles.

Captain Wm. Smith, Revelstoke, B. C., writes—

"It is with much pleasure, I state to you in praise of Dr. Chase's Ointment for itching protruding piles of many years standing and it has completely cured me. I had previously tried many other remedies, but they did me no good. I would strongly recommend this ointment to those suffering from this complaint for it is a good and genuine cure."

Mrs. Captain Cinnamsmith, Salvation Army, Essex, Ont., writes—

"It is with pleasure that I write to you in praise of Dr. Chase's Ointment for itching protruding piles and became so bad that I had to keep my bed and could lie in no position except on my stomach. Doctors could give me no help and the various ointments used proved of no avail."

"One Saturday night when I was in bed, I was told to get up and go to the drug store for a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment which I had heard of as a cure for piles. Although I had almost given up hope, I went to the drug store and was able to be in on Monday and have had no difficulty from piles since. As a treatment for all kinds of sores and burns Dr. Chase's Ointment works like a charm."

No Joking Matter

"When are you going to be married, Hilary?" was what an absurd question! Haven't I always told you that I hate the very sight of men?"

"But I thought you were joking, and—"

"It is no joking matter. I am a bachelor girl, and I am proud of it. I don't care what an absurd man on earth. 'How interesting!'"

"You remember that handsome Jack Dashing?" Well, he told me he admired you more than any girl under the sun, and he would like to make you his wife. 'Arg—and what did you say?'"

"I said, 'I don't care!'"

"A bachelor girl, hated men, and he might as well have told you." "What?"

"How dare you interfere with my affairs? Why couldn't you tell him to call? I shall never speak to you again as long as I live."—Scottish American.

The Lesson

In a certain Sunday school a teacher told her pupils the story of Samson and Delilah. Then she turned to the little boy.

"What do you learn, Joe?" she said, "from the Samson story?"

"I don't never say," piped Joe, "to have a woman cut a feller's hair."—Harper's Weekly.

"Those letters 'S.P.Q.R.'," said the antiquarian, "symbolized the centralized power of the Roman government."

"It did, eh?" rejoined the joyous lemmings. "I suppose it's a Latin spelling reform method of writing the word 'speaker.'"

A Mild Pill for Delicate Women.—The most delicate woman can undergo a course of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills without fear of unpleasant consequences. Their action, while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable. No violent pains or purgatives follow their use, as thousands of women who have used them can testify. They are, therefore, strongly recommended to women, who are more prone to disorders of the digestive organs than men.

Love's Language.

It was the morning of that fearsome, uncertain day when the bonds were to be made fast, where a tiny path yet leads back, when each tries to peer into the future and wonders and doubts and hesitates.

They were alone, and she drew near him, aware and watchful.

"Harold, dearest, in a few hours I will all be over you, and you grasp it all? But did you dream of me last night?"

"Yes, sweetest. I saw you as a black, marvelous and drifting placidly alone on a mirrored lake, with here and there a flat, floating leaf. And then I, a humble, joyous swim, too, began to float out to you, and my soul took fire, and I thrilled all over as you drew superbly around, and I, too, began to feel a poet, with a flaming, passionate pen, and I wished myself an earth god and that a raging wind would swoop down upon you that I might seize you in my arms and defy the storm god. And I could smell sweet incense and hear the tinkling of innumerable bells and could feel the delirium of a burning heart, and again I wished to be a poet that I might sing—"

"But, Harold, do you really love me?" He looked so breathless, deep and poured out his soul. "Yes, dearest, I think you are it."

And then she held up her vibrant lips, content, satisfied.—Puck.

Silhouette of the Engagement Ring.

I am considered a brilliant success in literature, though many people accuse me of plagiarism, the popular criticism of my work being "that old, old story."

It is a pity I am so slight, however, considering the conversation I have to listen to every evening. Last night he remarked sixty-five times, "I love you so, dear," and sixty-five times she replied, "Do you, dear?"

He tells them all "I love you as man never loved before." Not to clever to find many new ways of doing something so old?

Personally I can see no difference in his methods myself.

Cemetery Matters

For some weeks past there has been an effort put forward by some of our citizens to arouse the interest of the residents of Didsbury and surrounding country in matters appertaining to the improvement and beautifying of our cemetery.

Up to the present, there has been two meetings called, reports of which have already appeared in the Pioneer, and at both of which only a small number were present.

The first meeting which was held about two weeks ago, was the best attended, although it was termed by one of those present as an "informal" meeting.

The second, that had been advertised, only brought out seven. However lucky that number is claimed to be, 77 would have been better. With such small meetings no definite course of action could be decided upon, and another public meeting is called for August 5th.

To say that the object of this effort is praiseworthy is putting it very mildly. To have a well kept and beautiful graveyard should be the aim of every town. In this prairie country, where trees are scarce, and well laid out grounds the exception rather than the rule, a pretty cemetery would afford the nature loving and thoughtful of our population many a Sunday of pleasant walks and pious thoughts.

To those who have friends and relations covered by death, a general improvement will act as an impetus to them to still further beautify their respective lots.

The cemetery was donated to the town of Didsbury and district by Jacob Y. Shantz, of Berlin, Ont. The committee of management are the ministers of every denomination represented here, and three trustees, who are elected at a public meeting called for that purpose. The trustees at present are, Mr. Wm. Hunsperger, Mr. L. C. Snyder and Mr. Vance, who has left the town and at the meeting called for August 5th, it is very probable that another one will be elected in his place.

Farmer Fined

For neglecting to destroy noxious weeds after having been given notice to do so by the Weed Inspector, a farmer in the vicinity of Medicine Hat was brought before Inspector Parker of the Royal North West Mounted Police on Friday, July 16th, and fined $13.00 and costs. This is the first infringement of the Noxious Weeds Act this season and should be a warning to farmers and others who have noxious weeds on their property. It is the intention of the Weed Inspectors to see that their instructions are carried out this season.

Special Meeting of Town Council

A special meeting of the Town Council was held at the school, on Friday last, July 23rd. Those present were Mayor Corbitt, and Councillors Hembling, Hunsperger and Moyer.

Complaints having been made to the Council regarding cows belonging to town herd, being allowed to run about town, when not in charge of herd boys it was stated that such cattle were liable to be impounded and the Council decided to warn such parties through the town paper, that cows are to be left placed in yards by the herd boys and to remain there until taken out by the herd boys at 8.30 a.m.

The next business was the painting of the fire hall and after some discussion, it was decided to leave the matter to Councillor Hembling, who will attend to the painting of same.

The question of shooting inside the corporation was then raised and the solicitor was asked to draft a bylaw to prohibit shooting within the corporation.

The subject then brought up was the advisability of placing eavestroughs on the fire hall, and after it was discussed to some considerable length it was decided to place the matter in the hands of Councillor Hunsperger to see that this work be done.

Moved by Councillor Hembling and seconded by Councillor Hunsperger, that bills now in the hands of the secretary be paid, viz:

P. Vernon for lumber, etc. $241.40; W. H. Smith, hardware, as per bill, $12.58; P. Vernon, brush cutter hire, and P. McIlhargy's wages, etc., $18.59; The Cranston novelty Co., dog tags, $3.00; J. M. Reed, express on dog tags, 30c.; H. B. Atkins, "dump cart" $11.55; P. Vernon for use of team on streets, etc., $127.00. Carried.

Moved and seconded that the by-law amending the dog tax receive its first second reading.—Carried.

It was unanimously resolved that the by-law appointing Mr. Gilchrist as pound keeper be read a first second and third time.

The council then adjourned.

No trace has been heard of the convicts for some days and the penitentiary officials in conversation with the Bulletin this forenoon, July 24th, expressed no hope of making a recapture. The men have now been at large for almost two weeks and may be out of the province before this time.—Edmonton Bulletin.

Canadian Invents Armor Plate

London, July 22.—Harold R. Richardson, London, Ontario, who has been here for two years in connection with improved process in the manufacture of armor plate, said today he had won great success, his plate being tested by naval authorities at Whale Island last Saturday. A six inch bullet was fired 120 feet by a 9.2 inch gun with an armor piercing capped shell, which is a very good test and no impression was made on the plate, though the impact shattered the shell into a thousand pieces. Richardson estimates that his production is at least 25 per cent better than German plate and says it should prove of incalculable value to admiralty with whom he has been negotiating for some time. He intends giving the old country the sole benefit of his patent. He has already purchased a site here for the plant and says he is backed by big men. He sails for Canada on Saturday for a short holiday. Mr. Richardson hinted that admiralty was holding over plate contracts for new Dreadnoughts until the results of his invention were known. Albertan.

Convalescence

The following was told of the patient of a well-known New York physician:

The patient, an elderly gentleman, became quite ill while the doctor was absent upon a vacation, the indisposition being the result of too frequent potatoes. A female nurse was at once engaged to care for him in his hotel.

A lady residing in the same hotel one morning inquired concerning his condition of the housekeeper.

"Share, ma'am," replied Margie, "an' I think he be getting along very well. The nurse was sittin' on his lap this mornin'."

Trial is inexpensive.—To those who suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism or any ailment arising from derangement of the digestive system, a trial of Parole's Vegetable Pills is recommended, should the sufferer be unacquainted with them. The trial will be inexpensive and the result will be another customer for this excellent medicine. So effective is their action that many cures can certainly be traced to their use where other pills have proved ineffective.

"But you must come down to dinner with me."

"Really, old boy, you must excuse me," the doctor warns me that if I start to eating I am liable to go to bed and sleep."

Repeat it: "Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

A Dear Friend
"I hear you fear Tamson's married again."

"Aye, so he is. He's been a dear friend for me. He's not now three wedding presents an' two wreaths."

Why suffer from corns when they can be painlessly removed by using Holloway's Corn Cure.

Dust
There is a Wilmington man whose nerves sometimes give way under the constant fire of questions from his talkative right-shouldered son.

"Dad," asked the youngster, just as the old man had one evening settled down for a perusal of his newspaper.

"Dad, am I made of dust?"

"I think not," responded the unhappy parent. "Otherwise you'd dry up now and then."

Horsemen, Read This
I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT in my stables for over a year, and consider it the VERY BEST for horse flesh I can get, and would strongly recommend it to all horsemen.

Doctor.—No, I shouldn't advise you to take whisky for the grip.

Guard.—Well, I don't believe I've got the grip. It must be something else. Say, Doc, what disease is whisky good for?

Repeat it:—"Shiloh's Cure will always cure my coughs and colds."

A Bad Change.

While holding a term of court at Augusta once Judge Walton sentenced a man to seven years in prison for a grave crime. The respondent counsel asked for a mitigation of the sentence on the ground that the prisoner's health was very poor. "Your honor," said he, "I am going to show my client cannot live out half that term, and I beg of you to change the sentence." "Well, under these circumstances," said the judge, "I will change the sentence. I will make it for life instead of seven years." It is almost needless to add that the respondent chose to abide by the original sentence, which the judge permitted him to elect.—Argonaut.

Fine Old Spanish Emeralds. "Fine old Spanish emeralds" is a phrase which means something quite different from what it seems to imply. There never was an emerald mined in Spain, but after the conquest of Peru the conquerors brought home great quantities of loot, of which emeralds formed an important part. In this way the finest emeralds came into possession of the old Spanish families and as very few had been seen in Europe previous to that time all the best stones soon became classed as the old Spanish emeralds. Today the expression still applies to the best emeralds of any source.

Japanese Justice.
When a dog barks at night in Japan the owner is arrested and sentenced to work a year for the neighbors that were disturbed. The dog gets off easier, being simply killed.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Truthful.
He—Give me a kiss. She, delectably I won't. He—You shouldn't say "I won't" to me; you should say, "I prefer not." She—But that wouldn't be true.

The greatest firmness is the greatest mercy.—Longfellow.

These Pills Cure Rheumatism.—To the many who suffer from rheumatism, a trial of Parole's Vegetable Pills is recommended. They have pronounced action upon the liver and kidneys and by regulating the action of these organs act as an alternative in preventing the admixture of uric acid and blood that causes this painful disorder. They must be taken according to directions and used steadily and they will speedily give evidence of their beneficial effects.

The schoolboy thinks that a switch in the hand is worse than a dozen in the bush.

A MOTHER'S CHIEF CARE IS HER BABY'S WELFARE.

Every mother is anxious that her little ones shall be healthy, good natured and bright. Every mother can keep her children in this condition if she will give them an occasional course of Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets cure all stomach and bowel troubles, destroy worms and make teething easy. Mrs. T. Cowart Macie, Toronto, Ont., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my little boy since he was three months old and they agree with him wonderfully." Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

All men are born free and equal, but most of them spoil it by getting married.

Muscular Rheumatism Subdued.—When one is a sufferer from muscular rheumatism he cannot do better than to have the region rubbed with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. There is no oil that so speedily shows its effect as this oil.

The Acid Test
She looked up at him.

"You love me, George," she said. "You have told me you would do anything to prove your love."

"Anything, dearest," he fervently muttered.

"My new suit from Paris has come," she said, "together with my new hat and my new puffs. I will array myself in these and you will walk down the avenue with me to-morrow afternoon."

He turned pale and hesitated.

"This is the acid test of love," she coldly added.

He mutely shook his head as he arose.

"I can't do it," he hoarsely gasped, and went away deeply sorrowing.

Vanity of Riches.
"Now, Mr. Anthon, here," said Mr. Newrich, "these here plans call for a smokin' pipe, and I don't never smoke. I see you've got a nubble room laid out and I can't even while it a tune. You got a pantry, and I can keep all the pants I got in the wardrobe. And there's a drawin' room."

When the Nerves get out of Tune
And nervous prostration or partial paralysis brings you to a bed of helplessness.

You can remember the case described here and revitalize the wasted nervous system by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is so easy to neglect derangements of the nerves until something serious happens.

We say happens because many persons do not think they are really sick until they are laid low by nervous prostration or some form of paralysis.

They overlook the headaches, the nervous indigestion, the irritability and nervousness, the loss of sleep and energy and ambition. They forget that for weeks or months life has been more or less of a drag.

Then when the nervous collapse comes it takes patient and persistent treatment to get you on your feet again. The nerve cells must be gradually built up and a little more energy added to the system each day than is expended.

Get in the sunshine, breathe the fresh air, rest and use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and you will get well. But you must be patient and persistent.

Mr. Wm. Gresham, Arvood, Ont., writes: "I was laid low for some time with nervous prostration and two of the best doctors here could not find the cause. I was gradually becoming worse and worse, could not sleep and lost energy and interest in life. She was giving me in a despair when a friend advised a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"From the first box of this nourishing tonic my life was noticed improved and now she is completely cured and as well as ever. She was, eats well, sleeps well and looks fully restored. I am satisfied that my wife owes her life to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food." 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers or Elmhurst, Bates & Co., Toronto.

He Was Not Superstitious.
A captain of a merchant liner tells the following story: Coming from the old country was a very nervous old lady who complained that she was sure there was a rat in her stateroom.

"Keep it there, madam," said the captain.

"I've got like rats," asked she.

"I've got a nest in my cabin," retorted the brusque seaman, "and I never disturb them. When they leave the ship I do."

"Why, you must be superstitious," urged the dame.

"No, ma'am," wound up the captain, "I'm not, but the rats are."

He Was Right.
"To succeed," said the optimist, "you must have confidence in yourself."

"But how can I have confidence in myself," said the pessimist, "when my salary is only $10 a week?"—Cleveland Leader.

Up Against It
The suffragette leader was addressing a meeting of the Cookly's and Chambermaids' union.

"You women should all have a voice in the affairs of the nation," she exclaimed. "You should assert yourselves. You should be entitled to a vote."

Hereupon a seeker after information arose. The interruption was accompanied by a strong filibuster accent.

"Sure, that would mean that we'd be after havin' to live in wan place for six months, wouldn't it?" demanded the speaker.

It was not until then that the suffragette leader fully realized what she was up against.

Exasperating
From the dark kitchen there emanated a series of thumps and angry exclamations. Jones was looking for the cat.

"Pat" called the son from the stairway.

"Go to bed and let me alone," blurted out Jones. "I've just barked my shins."

"Pat" insisted Tommy, after a moment's silence.

"Well, what is it? Didn't I tell you to be quiet?"

"I-I didn't hear your shins bark," said the next moment Tommy was being pursued by an angry sire with a hard hair brush.

EVERY WOMAN WHO SUFFERS

CAN FIND SURE RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Mrs. J. Oliver Tells How She Lost Her Pains and Weakness When She Used the Old Reliable Kidney Remedy

Edgim, Ont. (Special).—Women who suffer, and there are thousands of them in Canada, will hear with interest the experience of Mrs. J. Oliver of this place. She has suffered and found a cure and she has no hesitation in saying that cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I suffered for over a year from Backache and Fainting Spells," Mrs. Oliver states, "I was tired and nervous all the time and the next exertion would make me perspire freely. My feet and ankles would swell and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. I saw Dodd's Kidney Pills advertised and bought some. Twelve boxes cured me."

Another "Sunshine" Feature

This is an entirely new idea, and will especially interest people who reside in natural gas districts. The gas ring takes the place of the lower Sunshine fire-pot, thus making it possible to burn gas in your furnace without inconvenience. Such is not possible in a furnace where the ordinary gas log is inserted; for should the gas give out, a coal or wood fire could not be started until the gas pipes were disconnected.

To provide against sweating in the summer time, Sunshine Furnace is equipped with a nickel-plated steel radiator and dome. All bolts and rivets are nickel-plated, all rods copper-plated. This special treatment, besides meaning quicker and greater radiation from the radiator and dome than cold iron could possibly give, acts as protection for the bolts, rivets and rods from inroads of gas. When cast iron comes in contact with our nickel-plated steel it is coated with our special Anti-Rust treatment, which prevents the slightest possibility of rust commencing anywhere in Sunshine Furnace.

Sunday School Convention

Arrangements have been made for three small Sabbath school conventions one at Three Hills, August 4th, at Bancroft August 5th, at Hartmann August 6th. At each of these places it is expected to have a basket dinner at noon with the afternoon full of discussion. At 5 o'clock the Provincial Secretary of the Alberta Sunday School Association, Mr. H. F. Kenny has promised to be present which will insure an interesting day for Sunday School workers and children. Mr. Kenny will give an address and others will do what they can to make the day profitable. The Rosebud County or District Convention will be held in October. Every Sunday School in these different localities are urged for the good of the cause to be present at the time and place appointed to help and receive.

Much Disappointment with Pageant Pictures.

"Who is to blame for the poor showing of the Calgary Pageant film?" This question is being asked by many and it is justified, for instead of the pageant being shown in its entirety, only a very small portion of it is depicted on the sheet, and this portion, to quote a very dissatisfied member of the publicity committee, "gives the impression that Calgary is still in the wild and woolly stage."

The film was on exhibition for the first time on Saturday, and whichever way it is looked at it is a disappointment.

"I wanted to resign from the publicity committee the first time I saw it said A. L. Watson, "and I am finally convinced that to destroy it would be the best possible thing to do with the film, for to send it out in its present state would be to do more harm than good. Not an international or industrial film is shown, not one automobile, none of the live stock, and very few buildings. It is a disappointment, plain and simple, not only to me, but to almost everyone that I have talked to who has seen it."

The film is precisely as A. L. Watson describes it. It starts with a panoramic view of the city, and then shows the new normal school, which is the only public building shown. The first part of the pageant does not show the Lieutenant Governor, but the Navasars ladies band, and the Indians, are given a great deal of prominence. In fact the latter appears to be on the film all the time, as a view of the encampment near the new hospital is shown at some length. An Indian race is also shown and a view of the grounds as given outside the grandstand would give the impression that Calgary is a land of Indians.

The street cars shown are the best feature of the film, and the Scottish pipe band which appears three times, is always applauded.

The absence of the children in the automobiles, the school cadets, and other features of the pageant is very noticeable, in fact as "one man who saw the film expresses it, "The feature of the film is the difference between it and the pageant itself."

The theatre management states that 800 feet of film has been damaged in transit, and this accounts for the poor showing. No promise, however, of showing the additional 500 feet have been made.—Albertan.

A Tree, What a "Shorten."

The first Sunday as a boy was possessed of a marvelous imagination. So wonderful, indeed, was it that it gave his parents many an anxious hour. He would recount imaginary scenes and conversations as though they were actual, and it really seemed as though he were unable to distinguish between the little fictions of his imagination and actual fact. This characteristic was strong with Shelley throughout his not very long life and frequently gave rise to unfortunate complications between himself and those who did not understand his nature and habit.

The Bud of a Tree.
Among the curious things recently discovered by the students of plant life is the fact that a bud taken from one tree and grafted on another carries the age of the original tree with it. It had always been believed that the bud so transferred began a wholly new life, but this new theory—it may, after all, be mere theory—than fact as yet—shows the matter in an entirely different light.

For example, if a bud be taken from a tree that is twenty-five years old with a natural life of fifty years and grafted on another tree it will not live as long as its parent tree is entitled to live, the full fifty years, but only for the period of life then left to the tree, twenty-five years.

Would You be Interested In Life of Independence

We would be pleased to supply you with the logical answer to the pertinent question which we put to you in the caption of this advertisement. Take a moment of your timetherefore, and write us a Post Card for full detailed information regarding our fruit lands at Okanagan Centre, situated in the heart of the famous Okanagan Valley.

Aside from the fertility of the soil the climate in this district is mild, equable, salubrious, dry and sunshiny every day.

No cyclones, blizzards, or destroying frosts.

The soil is highly productive.

It is the banner fruit growing country of all British Columbia embracing golden opportunities for those who wish to break away from the hum-drum life of the large farm on the prairies, the clerk or business existence in the city with no guarantee for the future.

After five years the orchard commences producing most profitable crops. An orchard in this vicinity of seven acres with side crops of small fruits between the rows produced crops which sold for $405 the fifth year, $521 the sixth year and $1135 in the seventh year.

The net profit of an acre of apple trees which have reached maturity (five to seven years) may be $200.

Strawberry patches will produce from 200 to 375 crates to the acre—average selling price $1.25 per crate. You can easily figure your profit from a large patch of strawberries which could be grown between the rows of the young orchard.

We want to send you our booklet, map and complete information so that you will be better informed on our proposition.

Our property is sub-divided into 10 acre farms, all of which are under a complete system of irrigation; they are close to town and have every convenience. Prices range from $125 per acre up, terms one quarter cash, balance over three years. Address all enquiries to

LOWER CABLE RATES

CHEAPER CABLE NEWS FOR THE BRITISH EMPIRE

Imperial Press Conference Emphatically Unanimous for a Reduction in Present Cable Rates, and Pass a Resolution in Favor of State-Owned Communication—Believe Government Could Operate at Lower Rates

Ottawa, P. C. Ross, the Ottawa delegate to the Imperial Press conference, has returned home. "It is practically assured," he said, "that there will be a continuation of the conference, as before we left London arrangements were made to organize a central committee to communicate with the various parts of the empire regarding future conferences. It is quite likely that the next conference will be held in Winnipeg in 1912."

The important practical issue of the conference, said Mr. Ross, "was the reduction of the Pacific cable rates, which would mean cheaper cable news, all British Empire, and the emphatically unanimous demand for state-owned electric communication systems, either imperial or a state-owned system of wireless communication. It was made clear that the British exists among all the Atlantic cable companies, which unfairly maintains high cable rates in violation of an agreement from which none of the existing companies can withdraw except upon consideration of the other hand. It is certain such a condition cannot be remedied by any further private corporation, except that of Marconi, and it is more than possible that as soon as Marconi gets his system in extensive use, the British at present its capacity is limited, his company might also enter the existing cable combination."

"The Imperial Press conference, in a motion moved by myself, seconded by J. W. Duff, of Winnipeg, and carried unanimously after a long discussion, demanded that government action should be taken to establish a government line, and the resolution produced to show that such a line could be established by the governments of Great Britain, Canada, and the United States, on a paying basis at a lower rate than that now demanded by the cable companies. A delegation from the conference impressed these views on Premier Asquith of Great Britain, and the Canadian delegates to the conference will shortly report an interview with the Hon. Rodolph LeMay, of Canada, who has agreed to press the matter upon the Laurier government."

Evidence on the Canal

Paris.—The Rogatory Panama Canal Commission, composed of Henry L. Wise, U.S. attorney, New York, and Stuart Macnamara, assistant attorney for the district of Columbia, has begun the taking of testimony in voluntary witnesses in a room at the American embassy, which was placed at its disposal by Ambassador White. The commission came to Paris early this month to obtain testimony in the Panama canal case. The testimony of both sides the sittings are in secret, and no statement regarding the nature of the evidence submitted can be secured for publication. Beyond this voluntary testimony nothing is likely to be obtained, and the idea of appointing a commission for an examination of the records has practically been abandoned.

London Newspaper Orders Airship

London.—The Morning Post, whose appeal for an airship for the newspaper has thus far brought only £500, announces that it has placed an order for an airship with the Messrs. Freres, who have built four dirigibles for the French army and one for Russia, and are building one for Austria. The firm agrees that the final decision regarding the efficiency of the airship shall rest with the committee. The Post further announces that it is prepared to buy also the Clement-Bayard airship with which it is intended to sail to England in August or September, if the price can be arranged and the company fulfills the committee's conditions.

Queen Congratulates Nordica

London.—Mme. Lilian Nordica has received royal congratulations on her approaching marriage to George Young, which will take place before her return to America in November, but the exact date of which has not yet been fixed. Consuelo, Duchess of Manchester, gave a luncheon Saturday night in honor of Mme. Nordica and Mr. Young, and Mrs. Ritchie gave a dinner on Sunday. After the latter affair the guests left for the house of Consuelo, Duchess of Manchester, where the Queen had dined, and Mme. Nordica sang for her majesty, after which she congratulated Mme. Nordica and Mr. Young on their coming marriage.

Better Equipment for Meat Supply

Ottawa.—Canadian Trade Commissioner Flood at Barbados reports to the trade and commerce department that better cold storage facilities and also cold warehouses are required for the development of the Canadian meat trade. He estimates the business of about $450,000. He considers that Trinidad affords the best market for Canadian sheep and oxen.

A CHAIN OF FORTS

Steps Will Be Taken to Make Prince Rupert Impregnable as a Naval Base

Prince Rupert, B. C.—Much interest has been taken here in a recent visit of General Otter, commanding the Canadian forces, with Col. R. W. Rutherford, R. C. E.; Captain H. T. Hughes, Royal Engineers; Captain Hay, of the Indian army, and Lieut. Haydon, of H.M.S. Silverstar. The officers were here to inspect the harbor and report to Ottawa on the plans for defense.

While none of the party would speak of their work, it was evident from the talk they exchanged that it is the intention of the authorities to establish a chain of forts and batteries, which, when armed with modern disappearing guns such as are now at Esquimalt and reinforced by auxiliary submarine mines, will make the harbor impregnable. The channels by which the port is reached were thoroughly gone over and the plans were prepared for submission, first of all to the authorities in Ottawa and then to the forthcoming Imperial Defense conference, which is to be held in London.

It is understood that a report on lines similar to that bearing upon Prince Rupert will be made regarding Vancouver. While in this city a few days ago General Otter and Col. Rutherford visited Point Grey and other outlying sections that would naturally be affected particularly in any fortification scheme.

Company to Develop Peace River

Montreal.—The Peace River Land and Navigation Co., with head office in Montreal and branch office and district office in Edmonton, has been meeting recently for the purpose of electing officers. The following were elected: W. H. Miller, president; N. H. Stevens, chairman, vice-president; L. H. Robertson, secretary-treasurer. The directors are: E. J. Stuart, Frank Barr, A. Evans, J. W. Lightbaird, K. C., and David Pines. Frederick S. Lawrence is to be general manager.

The company has a capital stock of $1,000,000, which is divided equally into 100,000 shares at $10 per share. The list of shareholders contains the names of some of the most prominent business men.

Victory for Miners in the Canada West

Edmonton.—The department of labor has received the report of the arbitration of conciliation in the strike of the miners of the Canada West Coal Company, which is the result of the issue was mainly that of wages and contract prices for coal, whether the screened or unscreened should be paid, and whether $2.40 or $2.00 to the ton should be the basis of calculation. The men demanded the unscreened basis of $2.40 pounds. The board finds that the screening appliances at the mine are not of the best, and that new methods in that regard are introduced there, as is promised, the rate of $2.40 pounds unscreened shall obtain. The board consisted of Judge Winter, W. C. Simmons, of Lethbridge, and Col. McClelland of Macleod. The report is unanimous.

Advocates Refusal of American Gold

Ottawa.—The report of the royal commission was stated that only copper coinage is being turned out at present. In fact, no silver coins have been struck this year. The reason is that the demand on the part of the banks. The total run of copper coinage is about a ton per day, but last week only one and a half tons were turned out. The mint authorities say that the Canadian public would not accept United States coins, the necessity for more Canadian coinage would be increased if it had.

There is $200,000 worth of silver coinage in reserve for any sudden demand. From time to time English sovereigns are being manufactured, but no Canadian $5 pieces have been struck yet.

Canada Has Entered World of Nations

Montreal.—Referring to the reported fortification of Prince Rupert, the Montreal Star says in an editorial: "The statement that Prince Rupert is to be fortified with disappearing guns and batteries of quick-firing guns, which we have entered the world of nations."

Our Catch is Very Good

Edmonton.—Colin Johnson, of Athabasca Landing, who came down from the north recently, stated that while everything pointed to a successful year for the north country, everything was very quiet at the present time. Asked as to the season's prospects, he said that the season was looking up for better, the period of protection having passed, and the Col. Fraser, another well-known buyer, is expected south shortly with a large cargo of furs, including about 8000 beaver skins and 15,000 rat skins.

BRITAIN'S NAVAL EMIGHT

LARGEST FLEET EVER ASSEMBLED IN BRITISH WATERS

People of London View England's Naval Pride—One Hundred and Fifty Warships Arouse Unbounded Enthusiasm—Line of Vessels Extended for a Distance of Forty Miles—Officers Entertained

London.—The lord mayor and corporation of the city of London proceeded to Southend and were taken on board the Dreadnought, from the deck of which might view the witnessed the manoeuvres of the most magnificent fleet ever assembled in British waters.

The people of London, a large proportion of whom seldom, if ever, see a British warship, have been shown a whole fleet—a fleet which includes the best destroyers, submarines, and the whole host of auxiliaries that go to make up a modern navy. The display include over a hundred ships from the home and Atlantic squadrons, including the new Sir William May, and has stretched in a long line from the Nore, where the battleships and the Westminister bridge, where one of the lightest draught boats took up her station. It has been a show which has attracted the attention of the day the ships were decked with flags and at night brilliant illuminations.

The 60,000 blue-jackets comprising the sailing forces of the 150 warships of the British fleet, the greatest in the world, of London. They marched through the principal thoroughfares, and as they swung along the route the cheering of the thousands of people who lined the streets greeted them with unbounded enthusiasm.

The decorations along the line of march were of the most brilliant. The decorations along the line of march were of the most brilliant. The decorations along the line of march were of the most brilliant.

The line of vessels extends for a distance of forty miles. From the houses of the city of London, the London bridge there are two lines of torpedo boats and submarines; in the middle of the river, the fleet is composed of destroyers and gunboats and smaller cruisers as far as Greenwich and Blackwall. In the reaches of the river, the fleet is composed of destroyers and gunboats and smaller cruisers as far as Greenwich and Blackwall.

Between Tilbury and Gravesend the line of battleships begins, extending from the Nore. The fleet is composed of destroyers and gunboats and smaller cruisers as far as Greenwich and Blackwall.

Only on two or three previous occasions have there been naval reviews at the water gate of the capital of the British empire, but never before has there been such a unique display of naval might in such circumstances as the present. The fleet is composed of destroyers and gunboats and smaller cruisers as far as Greenwich and Blackwall.

Fishery Case Will Go To The Hague

Ottawa.—Country to general expectations, the fishery dispute between Newfoundland, Canada and the United States will not be referred to the Hague conference this year, but will probably be referred next year.

Meanwhile Hon. A. B. Aylesworth and J. S. Ewart, K.C., are in London preparing Canada's case along with Sir Robert B. Finlay, the distinguished Scottish statesman. Mr. Aylesworth will proceed to Vienna in a few weeks, where he will make his case against the United States, which has been accused of his much discontent during the last session of parliament. He will return to Canada in October. The river, and the populace turned out in thousands to welcome and express enthusiastic appreciation of the blue-jackets.

The South American Trouble

Washington.—Official information has reached the state department that with a view to avoiding possible hostilities over the arbitration dispute, the government of Bolivia and Peru, the latter the beneficiary of the boundary award, have agreed to open negotiations with each other in the hope of arranging a modification of the Argentine territorial decision which will be satisfactory to all parties concerned.

Popes Against Moving Pictures

Rome.—The pope has issued a decree forbidding the clergy to attend biographic exhibitions of any kind on religious subjects, such as exhibitions of religious and morality. It seems that the clergy who formerly used to be very much interested in attending theatricals, patronize cinematograph shows freely.

CANADIAN SHOOTING AT BISLEY

The Grand Aggregate Shows Thirteen of the Canadians Well Up Among the Leading Marksmen

Bisley.—The all-round road shooting of the Canadian marksmen was brought into view by the posting of the grand aggregate. There are only 151 places, and despite the fact that the Canadians only numbered twenty-five out of 4,000, no less than thirteen men were winners in the aggregate. Sergeant Frechman was fifth, Sgt. Mitchell ninth, and Sgt. Richardson eleventh, each winning 45; Lieut. Smith 38; Sgt. Smith 26th, each winning 23; Corp. McInnes 23rd, Sgt. Major Huggins 2nd, Capt. McVittie 1st, Sgt. Russell 6th, Sgt. Stock 26th, Sgt. Kelly 13th, Major Jones 11th, and Sgt. Blackburn 16th, each winning 23.

Sgt. Blackburn, of Winnipeg, the Canadian who won the Prince of Wales cup and B. S. M. A. cup, added another to his collection by taking first place in the Wingrove, seven shots at 800 yards. The cup is valued at £25. In addition to the two cups mentioned and including the £100 Prince of Wales trophy, the total winnings at this meeting are £133. He is not a member of the team, but was in England on business, and took in the meeting, but did not make his expenses.

Shottell Talks About the West

Montreal.—Speaking of his experience while travelling through the Canadian west, Thomas Shottell, financial editor of the New York American, said that heretofore he has entertained optimistic views regarding Canadian land and mining, but his trip has convinced him, not only of the soundness of his views; it also has established the fact that the great expansion of the next few years will be in Canada's western areas.

The Canadian Pacific never seems to be in Canada's western areas. "For days we travelled through magnificent agricultural country, growing wheat, and so on," he said. "For days we travelled through magnificent agricultural country, growing wheat, and so on."

Ingenika Country the Richest Ever

Edmonton, Alta.—Looking for a new and feasible route into the Ingenika country, the Canadian government has been making a survey of the country. The Ingenika country is the richest ever discovered in the north, and will soon attract thousands of gold seekers.

Settlers Coming Fast as Expected

Edmonton, Alta.—The immigration commissioner of immigration, that there would be 70,000 settlers coming to Canada from the United States this year, was not the least exaggerated, as events are showing. Figures to hand show that this was a conservative estimate, and that there will probably be far more than 70,000 arriving.

Referring to this statement, Mr. Walker said: "In April I stated as a conservative estimate that 70,000 settlers from the United States would cross into Canada this year, being an increase of 20 per cent. over last year. I am now informed that the official figures of the total immigration to Canada from the United States for the months of April and May of this year, and so far as my figures go, the immigration, my prophecy is borne out by the remarkable increase in the number of arrivals in the months over the corresponding months of last year."

G. T. P. Runs East from Edmonton

Edmonton, Alta.—The first passenger train out of Edmonton on the Grand trunk line east to the coast left with a party of engineers to look over the route from Riley to Calgary.

Must Keep Expenses Down

Ottawa.—A notice has been served upon the head of every Dominion government department that absolute economy be observed in the expenditure, and that the fiscal year estimates must not be exceeded.

RIDICULES WAR SCARE

NEW ZEALAND EDITOR ON THE GERMAN BOGEY

Returning from Press Conference, Auckland, N. Z.—Mr. J. P. Drounought Scare in Britain as 'All Fudge'—Believes That Germany Has No Hostile Intentions Toward Great Britain

Montreal.—"All fudge." This is the way in which Mark Cohen of the Evening Star, Dunedin, New Zealand, sums up the dreadnought scare in England. Mr. Cohen was one of the press delegates to the Imperial Press conference in England and arrived in Montreal on his way home.

"I don't believe in the German scare one little bit," he remarked. "I think it is all politics; I don't think that Germany has any hostile intentions toward Great Britain at all, and I speak with a good deal of personal knowledge of the country. She is British only in form, but not in the commercial and industrial world, due to her wonderful system of education, but I believe toward all men, head of that of England. If England is going to meet Germany competition it will not be in her competition by Dreadnoughts, but by improving her system of education. It was a matter of regret that this German scare was made principal subject of discussion of the press conference, considering the special conference of delegates of various governments, but I believe that to consider matters, I think it might have been left to them."

Mr. Cohen is an alarmist view of the situation, Mr. Cohen was emphatic in stating that the time has come when the British must must take their share in expenditure for the defence of the empire, Mr. Cohen referred to the province, and binding colonies together by means of improving the means of communication. He and other delegates had gone, hoping that considerable prominence would be given to the "all red" route scheme, but for a reason or other it was dropped completely out of sight.

"In New Zealand," he said, "I believe that this all red route scheme of fast steamships would do more than anything else to bind the empire together."

Farmers and Agricultural College

Edmonton, Alta.—The feeling of the farmers throughout the province as regards the establishment of an agricultural college in connection with the University of Alberta, as the Alberta university, or any other institution, is a part of a resolution passed at the recent meeting of the United Farmers of Alberta.

Also, "That the board of directors of the University of Alberta urge upon the government that in the location and establishment of an agricultural college, the location of the college should be in the north, and the four constituents came into the situation in all its aspects, and inasmuch as the farming industry is the principal source of food, the representation of farmers on that committee be proportionate to their strong interests in the subject."

Walking Around the World

New York.—H. A. Greenlee, a veteran of the Boer war, who says he is the sole survivor of a party of four young Australians who set out from New South Wales on January 1, 1905, to walk around the world, has just completed his five-year walk around the world, arriving in this city the other night.

Mr. Greenlee, who is now 33 years of age, has walked nearly 33,000 miles of his five years' journey, having averaged nearly 25 miles a day since leaving Australia. Of his three companions, two were killed by savages in Africa and the third died of fever in Colorado. The purse which Greenlee expects to take possession of next summer was raised, he says, by public subscription, and the four constituents came from four states of Australia. They started without money and worked their way from country to country.

Estimate Yield of Grain in Alberta

Edmonton.—Below is given a tabulated estimate of the grain returns from government crop experimenters of the acreage in crop to the various crops of $25,000 in 1900, and also an estimate of the prospective yields for 1901.

	Acres.	Est. Yield
Wheat (winter)	75,000	1,500,000
Wheat (spring)	250,000	5,000,000
Barley	400,000	1,600,000
Oats	100,000	2,500,000
Rye	1,000	18,000
Flax	9,750	82,500
Sugar	400	1104
Total	906,150	29,027,512

Roosevelt Returning from Africa

Nairobi, British East Africa.—Col. Roosevelt and all the members of his expedition, including his famous hunter, have recently returned from their hunting trip on the shore of Lake Tanganyika. The expedition was led by Capt. Atterbury's ranch, Mr. Roosevelt, who is the zoologist of the expedition, is staying at Capt. Atterbury's ranch, where he has been at the government experimental farm, having lived with the British officials, inspected the live stock.

Provincial Happenings

In an interview with a representative of Calgary Morning Albertan, Professor Adam Short said, "Roughly speaking, what I expect, and what is really working out, is that the West will not be really a region for the production of raw material, but will be a region in which manufacturing will grow up. The supply of motive power here in the West, that is the coal and water, development of oil and gas, and the transmission of electricity, must form the basis for a very varied production, and the attraction of a great population to work the varied industries. This will in turn act on the agricultural country, and in fact is acting on it at the present time, by forcing the farmer to go in more for mixed farming and dairying instead of confining his attention to wheat growing, which would in time impoverish the land, whereas by mixed farming he can keep his land in a state of almost continuous fertility. It is necessary that the farmer go in more for mixed farming in order that he might supply the populations of the rapidly growing towns who are working in the varied industries that are gradually coming into the West, and thus in time, the West economically will show that variety of industry and life which the East has already taken on."

He also pointed out another great advantage of mixed farming over straight wheat growing, in that it rendered available the irrigation facilities offered in dry seasons.

President Bower told the Advocate, a day or two ago that he had had no word of the pork packing guarantee pledge for the farmers, and there appeared to be nothing doing. There seems to be an expression that the provincial government is waiting to see what the Dominion government is going to do concerning the combined pork and beef packing scheme placed before Hon. Mr. Fisher by Mr. Green street and Mr. Whiteside and other members of the Alberta committee which had the scheme in hand. Mr. Fisher seemed quite impressed with the project and a committee of investigation composed of one member from each province, is now in the Old Country studying conditions there. Should the dominion minister of agriculture decide after their report, that the Greenstreet scheme is a feasible one, and recommend that the required dominion guarantee of $1,500,000 bonds be made to try the scheme in the western provinces, it is not unlikely that the provincial government's pork packing scheme will be held up for the time, to see if the dominion aided combined cattle and hog killing plants will meet the need.—Red Deer Advocate.

Ottawa, July 22.—Comptroller Whyte of the R.N.W.M.P., has no official confirmation that an arrangement has been reached with the government for the retention of the Mounted police in the province for a further five years, but such arrangement is expected as the result of negotiations which have been in progress. The policy of the Dominion government is to gradually withdraw the force from the more thickly settled parts of the province, but not to hasten the withdrawal until the municipal system is better organized. With the organization of provincial police the mounted police will be confined to the unorganized territory.

The station agent, Mr. John Pope, at Cochrane, tells of a curious incident which happened while he was paying his rod the other day. His brown dog was standing in shallow water with gently moving tail when a fair sized trout took that somewhat unusual bait. Naturally started by the nip, the dog gave a violent whisk to his tail and neatly landed the fish high and dry on the bank. It's weight was 5 lbs. 3 ozs. A water dog that can retrieve duck at one end and trout at the other must be a useful dog to have. —Cochrane Advocate.

Stettler, July 26.—Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, Wess Warner, on going into his store discovered the body of a man named William Howell, whom he had allowed to sleep on a couch over night, as he could not obtain other lodgings. He was married and has a wife who is supposed to be in St. John, New Brunswick. He was engaged in the real estate business here, and was in an advanced stage of consumption, from which he died. No inquest will be held.—Calgary Herald.

At Strathcona, at four o'clock Wednesday morning, Dr. Willert McIntyre, M.P., died while undergoing an operation for acute kidney disease. Dr. McIntyre was 43 years of age, having been born July 15th, 1895, at Rosedale, Victoria county, Ontario. He received his education at Owen Collegiate Institute, and studied medicine at the University of Toronto. He was president of the Strathcona board of trade and of the Northern Alberta Medical Association. He was first elected to parliament April 5th, 1905, in a bye-election, caused by the appointment to the senate of Hon. Peter Talbot, the sitting member. He was re-elected at the general election of 1908. He was a Presbyterian in religion and a Liberal in politics. He was married January 1st, 1908, to Mary, youngest daughter of the late Capt. Robert Harkley, of Owen Sound, Ont.

On Tuesday afternoon, at Lacombe, "Woodman," E. K. Strath's coach stallion kicked his groom. Charlie Bishop, on the forehead, above the right eye, inflicting an injury which proved fatal, the victim of the accident passing away at 10.30 Wednesday night.

Charley had brought the horse of which he was very proud, out to show to his brother who had arrived the day before for a visit and in an unguarded moment while speaking to his brother the horse kicked with the result chronicled. Charley Bishop came to Canada from Brighton, England, and came to Lacombe about three years ago in charge of Mr. Strath's horses, and has been in Mr. Strath's employ most of the time since.

Calgary, July 21.—As the result of an altercation which he had with W. I. Atkinson, a bartender at the Empire hotel yesterday afternoon, a man named Good is now in the general hospital suffering from a broken jaw and other minor injuries, while Atkinson is out on bail for the charge of assault that has been laid against him. According to the story told to the police, the two men began their quarrel in the bar and Good, apparently thinking that he could beat Atkinson, challenged him to come out in the back yard at the rear of the hotel. They went and fought and when the damage was totalled up it was found necessary to call the ambulance and have Good taken to the hospital.

Truth is Mighty

May 29th was the rainiest day ever known in the history of this country. John Ahl started to town with a set of rawhide harness on his team. He noticed that he was not making very good time, although the horses were trotting rapidly. On examination it was found that the rawhide harness had stretched so much that John's team was in town while he was left in the buggy half way. About then the sun came out and shrank the tugs so fast that John was trotting to town in one jerk.—Denhoff Voice.

Exposition Project Known Abroad

News of Canada's International Exposition project is spreading fast. The Monitor, of Boston, Massachusetts, dealt editorially with the matter last week, and said:

"Those who have not kept pace in their reading with the progress of Western Canada will be surprised to learn that Winnipeg bears much the same relation to Canada as Chicago does to the United States, and that as a western centre of population, with ten million population within thirty-six hours of distance, it offers a better field for the operation of a world's fair than either Portland or Seattle. If there is boastfulness here, it is the boastfulness of national pride and is, therefore, of a very excusable kind. However the astonishing thing, from the casual readers point of view, is the fact that there can be ten million people within a week and a half of distance of the metropolis of the Red River country, to say nothing of a day and a half."

The Monitor goes on to show how very short a time it is since the Red River Valley was wild country, and says that Federal aid for the Exposition project will be regarded in the United States as a wise and generous recognition of the fact that the future greatness of Canada lies far out in its western parts.

Progress in the matter of a provincial grant from Manitoba to the Exposition has been delayed by the serious and continued illness of Mr. Cowdwell, of the Manitoba Government. As soon as this member of the Provincial Cabinet is recovered from his illness sufficiently to take active part in a Cabinet meeting, the Manitoba Government will take up the matter of an Exposition grant officially, and will, beyond a doubt, be exceedingly generous and just in the case.

INDIAN CRABONS.

The Way to Keep the Indians Down
An Old Trick.

"Few white men know how to trade with an Indian," remarked a Denver man who has made a study of Indians for ten years past. "I once met an Indian with a magnificent mountain lion skin. He was willing to part with the ornament, but his price was too high. I offered him $12.50, but he indignantly refused. Later, on the same day, after I had learned to trade with an Indian, I bought the skin for $1.50."

"The secret of trading with the Indian is to appear indifferent. The most successful trader is the one who goes with a supply of the same article he is most desirous of buying. The Indian sees that the stranger has had experience, and negotiations are carried on upon a strictly business basis. An Indian refused $10 for a bow and arrow. It was bought for $1 by a man who carried several bows and arrows in his hand. This wily individual leased the supply from a store in order to impress his copper colored friends, and he succeeded."

"The Indian," said the speaker, telling of traits of character he has observed in his red friends, "is one of the most faithful followers in the world if he has confidence in you. If he takes a liking to you, there is nothing you can ask he will not do. If he dislikes you, the less you have to do with that Indian the better." — Rocky Mountain News.
